Annual Parish Meetings/Annual Parochial Church Meetings

Bubbenhall tba

Baginton: 14 April after the morning service. Meeting starts at 11.00am

Ryton: 21 April , after the 9.30 am service. Meeting starts at 10.45am.

These two meetings – which are so close together that they feel like one meeting – will take place this year at the times above. Both meetings are open to anyone who wishes to attend, though there are restrictions on who may vote.

The Annual Parish Meeting is for the election of Churchwardens, and anyone on the civil electoral roll who lives in the respective parishes may vote.

The Annual Parochial Church Meeting receives reports on the life of the church and hears any questions which you may have about your parish churches. It also elects members to the PCC, and anyone who is on the church electoral roll may vote.

Please consider carefully if you are able to offer to serve on the PCC (Parochial Church Council) of your parish church

New ideas, new enthusiasm and new energy are always needed to ensure the vitality of your Parish Church into the future.

This is especially important now that we are without a parish priest.

Please have a word with the Churchwardens if you would like to serve your Parish Church in these ways.

March 10: Help needed please!

If you would like to help make the posies ready for Mothering Sunday, please contact Craig.

You are welcome to bring with you any greenery etc. which you feel would help make the essential three daffodils into a pretty posy.

Lent Jars.

This Lent, many of us will give up glasses of wine, coffee or chocolate, to mark the 40 days Jesus spent fasting in the desert.

Jars will be available at the back of church and in the church centre from Ash Wednesday (February 14) Please take a jar (or use one from home) and put in it what you save by giving up something for Lent. Bring your jar to church at Easter as a thank-offering. This year, we shall be supporting the charity Practical Action with our donations. They used to be called “Intermediate Technology”, and their work is to support some of the poorest communities in the world in low-cost and sustainable ways. See their website:

Recycle your used printer cartridges

John Church writes: We can now take all ink cartridges, laser and toner cartridges, although we only get paid for the chunky types; the others are disposed of without going into landfill.

If anyone has the chunky printer cartridges that we can recycle, please let me have them- there is a plastic box for them just outside the Ryton Church centre door. At Bubbenhall, please leave your cartridges at the back of church, or with Craig Greenway.

John has received the following letter from the organisation, Recycle4Charity

Dear John,

Thank you for recycling your cartridges with us. With your help we have kept 388518 Kg of ink cartridges out of landfill sites. Your ink cartridges have generated a donation of £40.10 to your chosen cause which will be paid out in the next payment run. A new box will be dispatched promptly to you.

Village Worship- for all ages

Village Worship and Family Services: for young and old!

Second and Fourth Sunday in every month at 9.30 a.m. at Ryton Church

Thought for the month: Lent began on Ash Wednesday

On February 14, some of us joined Christians throughout the world when we went to church and received a smudge of ashes on our foreheads. A smudge in the shape of a cross- at least that's what it's meant to be.

Many of us had the sign of the cross made on our foreheads when our parents brought us to the font and we were baptised- christened. That first time, the cross was made in pure, clean water- a symbol of pure, clean little souls, washed in the cleansing water of baptism.

The Ash Wednesday cross was made in dirty ash, a symbol of- well, several things, among them our no-longer-clean souls, sullied and dirtied by our sins.

Pure water at baptism, dirty ashes today.

But- and it's a very important but- the sign and the gesture is the same.

A cross on the forehead.

A reminder today that, whatever we have done to dirty and spoil that baptismal innocence, we are still, despite everything, what is says in the catechism:

members of Christ,

children of God,

and inheritors of the Kingdom of Heaven.

Ashes to ashes, dust to dust.

Words we hear more and more often as we grow older, our friends and loved ones die, and we attend their funerals.

Ashes to ashes, dust to dust.

Dust thou art, and to dust thou shalt return, said God to sinful Adam as he sorrowfully turned him out of the Garden of Eden, symbol of the time of innocence.

Remember that you are dust, and to dust you shall return, each of us heard on Ash Wednesday as we received the smudge of ash on our foreheads.

The question is, what are we going to do with the days that are allotted to us between this Ash Wednesday, and the day when the words: "Ashes to ashes, dust to dust" will be spoken over our coffins?

The obvious answer, especially at the beginning of Lent is: Repent.

Repent is such a beautiful word, for a beautiful thing.

Repent doesn't mean grovel.

Repent doesn't mean be ever so Umble like Dickens' Uriah Heep.

Repent means Turn back.

Turn back to the person you really are, to the innocence you have lost.

Turn back to God.

Repent means: turn back to God and be his son, his daughter once more.

Repent means be who you are; God isn't interested in our play-acting; God is interested in us as we are, warts and all.

I pray that during the weeks that lie ahead, we may all experience the joy- joy on both sides- as we return to the Lord with all our hearts.

As we wash away the dirt of our sins in the water of repentance, and become again what we really are;

members of Christ,

children of God,

and inheritors of the Kingdom of Heaven.

Rosemary
